GREATER ALLELUIA Psalms 147: 12

Allelúja, allelúja. Lauda, Jerúsalem, Dóminum: lauda Deum tuum, Sion.

To the brethren, the Jews that are throughout Egypt, the brethren, the Jews that are in Jerusalem, and in the land of Judea, send health, and good peace. May God be gracious to you, and remember His covenant that He made with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, His faithful servants: And give you all a heart to worship Him and to do His will with a great heart, and a willing mind. May He open your heart in His law, and in His commandments, and send you peace. May He hear your prayers, and be reconciled unto you, and never forsake you in the evil time.

Pray ye for the things that are for the peace of Jerusalem: and abundance for them that love thee.. Let peace be in Thy strength: and abundance in thy towers.

Alleluia, alleluia. Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem: praise thy God, O Sion. Alleluia.

In Judea God is known, His name is great in Israel. And His place is in peace, and His abode in Sion. There hath He broken the power of bows, the shield, the sword, and the battle.

Alleluia, alleluia. Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem: praise thy God, O Sion.

Allelúja. (Ibid.: 14) Qui pósuit fines tuos pacem, et ádipe fruménti sátiat te. Allelúja.

Múnera tibi, Dómine, nostræ devotiónis offérimus: quæ et pro tuórum tibi grata sint honóre justórum,

Alleluia. Who hath placed peace in thy borders: and filleth thee with the fat of corn. Alleluia.

At that time: when it was late, that same day, the first of the week, and the doors were shut, where the disciples were gathered together for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them: Peace be to you. And when he had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. The disciples therefore were glad, when they saw the Lord. He said therefore to them again: Peace be to you. As the Father hath sent Me, I also send you. When He had said this, He breathed on them; and said to them: Receive ye the Holy Ghost. Whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them; and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained.

Praise ye the Lord, for He is good, sing ye to His name, for it is sweet: Whatsoever He pleased, He hath done in heaven and upon earth (P. T. Alleluia.)

O God, Who sufferest not the nations that believe in Thee to be shaken by any fear, deign, we beseech Thee, to receive the prayers and sacrifices of the people consecrated to Thee, that peace, the gift of Thy loving-kindness, may render Christian countries safe from every enemy. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

We offer unto Thee, O Lord, the gifts of our devotion: may they please Thee as honoring Thy just ones, and
